ABOUT CUDES

The first International Congress on Current Debates in Social Sciences (CUDES) has been organized by Farhang Morady and İsmail Şiriner from the University of Westminster (United Kingdom) under the collaboration of Kocaeli University (Turkey) and Silesian University in Opava (Czech Republic) on 2010, in London. After the conference, a book entitled "Globalisation, Religion & Development" was published by IJOPEC. The second CUDES was held in Karvina Czech Republic in 2011, while the third one was held in Kocaeli at Kocaeli University with the theme of Research Methods in Social Sciences as a workshop format. While the fourth and fifth CUDES were organised at Kocaeli University with the aim of offering new perspectives on current debates in the social sciences, the organisation was further enriched with the participation of the University of Belgrade (Serbia) in the sixth and seventh congresses. The eighth CUDES in September 2018 was co-organised by the University of Westminster (United Kingdom), Altınbaş University (Turkey), VUZF University (Bulgaria) and the University of Belgrade (Serbia). The ninth congress in May 2019 in Nicosia / Lefkoşa was joined by Batman University (Turkey) and Near East University (Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus). Kırklareli University joined the 11th CUDES Congress and the 12th CUDES Congress will be hosted by Kırklareli University (Turkey) and organised in collaboration with Altınbaş University (Turkey), VUZF University (Bulgaria), Sakarya University (Turkey), University of Belgrade (Serbia), Batman University (Turkey) and supported by University of Westminster (United Kingdom) and IJOPEC Publication (London). Georgian Technical University (Georgia) and Beykoz University (Turkey) joined as host and partner institutions in 2022 and 2023. In the 15th CUDES Congress, Grigol Robakidze University joined and became the host university.

The aim of CUDES is not only to provide an invaluable platform for social scientists to discuss current debates in the social sciences, but also to encourage interdisciplinary studies and exchanges between social scientists. The main focus of CUDES is to promote an alternative platform for young researchers to share and exchange their experiences and results.
